SATURDAY MORNING CLASSES

Our Saturday morning classes got off to a great start! Families painted some cute pumpkins on canvas - perfect for the fall season. Our November class will get you in the Christmas spirit!

The remaining non-recital classes will meet: November 9, January 11 and February 8. Classes run as followed:

Sneak peek of the next project!

8:45 - A Mother/Child JAZZ class for Beginning/Intermediate levels! This would be a great class for a mom and her child to get some exercise and have fun together!

9:30 - Right after the mother/child jazz class, we will have an Art Class. There will be four different projects! The last time this artist was at our studio, they did a beautiful ballerina canvas painting! There is a discount if you sign up for both the jazz class and this class.

9:30 - There is also a ballet technique class for intermediate and advanced level dancers!

The cost for all four classes with the art class is $120/person or $140/parent & child group ($20 more for each additional child). The cost for one class is $35/person or $40/parent & child group ($5 more for each additional child). To register, visit brighterdaysdance.com/fall-2019-session.
